Big Initiation Wednesday Night Arouses Hibernian Interest.

An unusually large attendance of the members of Division 4 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians was present at the meeting Monday night in Bertrand Hall, and those present were well rewarded for their presence, as it marked a big revival Hibernianism in this section and all were given an insight into the work of the Catholic chaplains at Camp Zachary Taylor, the progress of that work being a revelation to many. The meeting Monday was arranged principally for the presentation of an organ to the Catholic chapel at Camp Zachary Taylor and Rev. Father Raphael, post chaplain, and Rev. Father Rawlinson, army chaplain, were present to express their appreciation, of the gift. Father Raphael told of the good work being done at the post for Catholic boys and how their influence was bearing fruit among non-Catholic soldiers who were enjoying the benefits of the Catholic recreation rooms, and that many of the latter were coming to the priests stationed there for religious instruc-

Division President Thomas Lynch, Thomas Keenan, Thomas Walsh, Thomas Dolan, Senator Mark Ryan, S. J. McElliott and William P. McDonogh, Chairman of the Organ Presentation Committee, who requested all of the members to attend the masses at camp on Sunday morning, which are said at 6, 8, 8:15 and 9 o'clock. Before adjourning a resolution was adopted suggesting to the County Board that steps be taken right away to prepare for a big St. Patrick's day celebration and parade on March 17. A class of twenty-two were initiated into the order Wednesday night, with a splendid exemplifica-tion of the degrees by Division 4's egree team, and following the initiation a big Thanksgiving lunch was served by the Entertainment Committee. Many of the old guard were present and all enjoyed the vocal and musical selections, but the hit of the evening was made by dancers with their Irish jigs and reels. A big delegation was present from Division 3, led by President John Riley and Vice President Tim O'Leary.

had been fought, and Catholics and Protestants in common had cemented with their blood the rounded of the new republic, it might reasonably have been hopd that bigotry would be forgotten and Catholic patriotism receive from all the just meed of recognition which the Father of his Country so unre-servedly bestowed upon it. The same might have been looked for even more assuredly after the War of 1812. Yet a renewal of the spirit of intolerance was to be witnessed before a score of years had passed, and in 1831 an organized

The bigotry incited by pulpit and press, and stimulated by public placards, found its complete expression in the destruction of the Ursuline Convent at Charlestown, Mass., in 1834. Not only was the Blessed Sacrament dishonored, but everything within the building was destroyed before the torch was se The engines that arrived at the scene of conflagration stood idly by and the firemen watched the drunken rabble dancing in glee about the burning pile and then retired. The Magistrates did not move a finger. Such are some of the details given by John Gilmary Shea. "The mob," he writes, "did not even spare the graves of the dead. The coffins were torn open and the bodies exposed." A farcical trial, with the set purpose of acquitting the rioters, completed the incident. The charges made against the Sisters were disapproved by a Protestant committee, but the harm had been done. Such was the first result of the campaign of slanderous ccusations carried on against Catholic institutions. The churches in Boston were threatened and could rely for their protection only on the strong arm of Catholics them-selves. The Pope was shot in effigy by the Washington Artillery. The work of the father of lies now continued. The spirit of Benedict Arnold was abroad in the

The Native American party arose in 1844, when the American Protestant Association, founded in 1831, had been repudi-American Protestants.

It was the Bible which was now in danger at the hands of the "foreign Papists." They had preserved it to the world for all these centuries, they had guarded it as one of their greatest treasures and were willing to lay down their lives for the truths it contained. For this very reason they insisted so strongly upon the exclusive use of an approved Catholic version for the children of the church. But reason obtains scant hearing from fanatic bigotry. It were easier to argue with poor, distraught and raving Lear, bidding the cataracts and hurricanes spout, and heaven's lightning singe his white head, than to convince blind prejudice. Worse than all is the filful malice or base political intrigue that underlies such movements. The noble work accomplished by the Native American party during the first five months of its existence was thus summarized by the Rev. M. Fithian, a Protestant minister:

"Two Catholic churches burned. one thrice fired and desecrated; a Catholic seminary and retreat consumed by the torches of an cendiary mob; two rectories and a most valuable library destroyed; forty dwellings in ruins, about forty human lives sacrificed and sixty of our fellow citizens wounded; riot and rebellion and treason rampant; the laws boldly set at defiance, and peace and order prostrated by ruffian violence."

To picture in detail the scenes of bigotry and fanaticism, of an-archy and treason which now followed with the appearance of the American Protective Association, founded in 1852, were a long and dismal task. In "Loyalty of Catholics," from which the above extract is quoted, a brief enumeration may be found. The "protective" act of the fanatics was an attack upon a convent of helpless and in-offensive nuns in Providence, R. I. Next followed outbreaks of civic hatred from press and platform in the cities of Boston, Baltimore, Wheeling, Pittsburgh and many other places. The agitation reached a climax in the mob attack upon the Cathedral of Cincinnati, resulting in the loss of several lives. The patriotic work now continued with the bloody riots of St. Louis; with Camouflage is a word which nearly all are familiar with now because of its frequent mention in the war dispatches, and as all know it means to disguise or color something to fool the enemy. This word could be aptly applied to the new local administration, and especially the performances of the Board of Public Works. ## SOCIALISM DANGEROUS.

The great industrial unrest throughout the country manifested itself in no uncertain way in the recent elections. This unrest thirty odd years ago evidenced itself in movements that were distinctly labor ones and for the betterment of the laboring man. The full dinner pail was expressive of labor's aim and ambition. Lloyd George's activity in the formation of an Allied war council to direct the armies has provoked the hostile criticism of the Tory press, and in fact of every newspaper in England whose policy is trolled by the war profiteer and those who aim at the control of world's trade.
